

REMEMBER

Words & Music by Randall Wedel

1. A long time ago our future was grim.
The world lived in fear; our vision was dim.
A terrible pow'r of hate and deceit
Brought terror of war and fear of defeat.

2. Our people, they cried, "We cannot give in.
We must save ourselves and our children."
They took up their arms, our freedom at stake.
They fought for our land for liberty's sake.

CHORUS:

Remember the ones who died for freedom.
Remember the fields in which they lie.
Remember the cause and those who fought for all we love.
Remember the ones who gave their lives.

3. The planes overhead dropped death from the sky.
The deafening roar drowned out the faint cry
Of people in pain from sorrow and grief.
The guns rattled on o'er land, air and sea.

4. The battles raged on for year after year,
And millions died. Still more cried in tears.
Our soldiers gave all, and fought to the end.
Our freedoms today on their lives depend.
