RATIONALE

The Diocese of Nelson is committed to creating and maintaining a work environment where people are treated, and treat each other, professionally and respectfully in their interactions and where the dignity of all individuals is upheld. When personal conflict occurs, a process is in place to allow the conflict to be effectively resolved.

In addition to this broad objective, this policy is intended to comply with WorkSafeBC's policies on the prevention of workplace Bullying and Harassment.

DEFINITIONS

Bullying and Harassment

Bullying and Harassment:

- a) includes any inappropriate conduct or comment by a person towards an employee that the person knew or reasonably ought to have known would cause that employee to be humiliated or intimidated, but
- b) excludes any reasonable action taken by an employer or supervisor relating to the management and direction of employees or the place of employment.

Examples of conduct or comments that might constitute Bullying and Harassment include:

- Verbal aggression, name-calling and personal insults
- Vandalizing personal belongings
- Sabotaging work
- Spreading malicious rumours
- Humiliating initiation practices / hazing
- Personal attacks
- Aggressive / threatening gestures
- Cyber-Bullying (through email, text messaging, social networking, and websites)

These actions can be overt and obvious or covert and subtle and would be considered by a "reasonable person" to be unacceptable.

Bullying and Harassment is not:

- Expressing differences of opinion
- Offering constructive feedback
- Making a legitimate complaint about another employee's conduct
- Reasonable management action, including decisions about:
 - Job duties and work to be performed
 - Workloads and deadlines
 - Layoffs, transfers, promotions, and reorganizations
 - Work instruction, supervision, or feedback

- Work evaluation
- Performance management
- Discipline, suspensions, or terminations

Committee

The Safe Environment Advisory Committee, appointed by the Bishop, is responsible for investigating allegations of abuse and Harassment in the Diocese and for making recommendations to the Bishop or appropriate authority on actions to be taken.

Diocese

Diocese is the Roman Catholic Diocese of Nelson including parishes, missions, prayer houses and schools. Diocese refers to either the Diocesan office or its delegated authority.

POLICY

Workplace Bullying and Harassment is not acceptable and is not tolerated in the Diocese. All Diocesan employees must be treated in a fair and respectful manner.

Diocesan employees must:

- not engage in the Bullying and Harassment of other people;
- report Bullying and Harassment whether observed or experienced; and
- apply and comply with the Diocese's policies and procedures on Bullying and Harassment.

This policy statement applies to all employees, including permanent, temporary, casual, and contract. It applies to interpersonal communication, as well as electronic communication.

Pastors, School Administrators and Diocesan Directors must ensure that the provisions of this policy are communicated and understood.

This policy must be reviewed annually with employees.

PROCEDURES & GUIDELINES

All employees have a responsibility to prevent and address workplace Bullying and Harassment situations.

Prevention Strategies

Each Diocesan workplace must ensure that all employees are educated about and understand this policy.

What employees can do to stop workplace Bullying and Harassment:

- Listen to the target
- Don't gossip
- Offer support (e.g. employee assistance program, counsellor)
- Document details of what you see to share in an investigation (dates, details, witnesses)
- Tell the bully/harasser to stop

Reporting Procedures

How to Report

Diocesan employees must report incidents or complaints of workplace Bullying and Harassment. To report a formal complaint, employees must use the Workplace Bullying and Harassment Complaint Form (Schedule A).

When to Report

Incidents or complaints shall be reported as soon as possible after experiencing or witnessing an incident. This allows the incident to be investigated and addressed promptly.

Reporting Contact

Incidents or complaints shall be reported to the Delegate or Deputy Delegate. For contact information, refer to the Diocesan website (www.nelsondiocese.org).

What to Include in the Report

Provide as much information as possible in the report, such as the names of people involved, witnesses, where the events occurred, when they occurred, and what behaviour and/or words led to the complaint. Attach any supporting documents, such as emails, handwritten notes, or photographs. Physical evidence, such as vandalized personal belongings, can also be submitted.

Response Strategies

If an employee is being bullied or harassed, the situation shall be addressed through a conflict resolution process. The intent of the process is to resolve conflict between people. The process offers the individuals involved in the conflict the opportunity to resolve the conflict directly with the other party or through a formal complaint.

Option 1: Speak with the offending person directly

The complainant is encouraged to speak directly with the offending person to resolve the conflict. In many cases, the person may not have realized his/her actions or comments created an issue for the individual. Most reasonable people will change their behaviour when they discover it is creating issues for others.

Following scripture and the words of Christ (Matthew 5:23-25), it is important to make every effort to speak directly with the individual allegedly giving offense. The informal meeting can be facilitated by a colleague or someone who is trusted; this meeting is an informal process of trying to resolve an issue.

If you are the target of, or witness to, Bullying and Harassment:

- Tell the bully what behaviour was inappropriate
- Make it clear the behaviour is unwanted and unacceptable
- Stay calm
- Don't retaliate
- Report it

If you choose Option 1, you are not required to complete the Workplace Bullying and Harassment Complaint Form. However, you must inform your supervisor of the action that you took. Should the Bullying and/or Harassment continue, the complainant must make a formal complaint.

Option 2: Formal Complaint

The complainant shall complete the Workplace Bullying and Harassment Complaint Form and submit it to the Delegate or Deputy Delegate.

The Committee shall conduct a confidential investigation of the complaint in order to determine the facts and assess whether this policy has been breached.

The time taken to investigate the complaint shall begin within 5 working days and shall not normally exceed 10 working days from the date the formal complaint is filed.

The Committee may recommend that the people involved in the complaint participate in a mediated resolution. The mediator (a Committee member or third party appointed by the Committee) shall speak with the other party to determine if he/she is interested in participating in this process. Participation in this process is voluntary. If both parties agree to participate, the mediator shall help the parties explore options to resolve the issue. He/she may offer suggestions or alternatives for the parties to consider, but it is up to the individuals involved in the conflict to reach their own resolution. Discussions with mediators shall be considered confidential by all participants.

In the event of a formal investigation, the Committee may choose to retain an outside investigator to conduct the investigation.

The alleged victim and the offending person(s) shall have a right to representation during the investigation process.

Remedial Action

Where a breach of this policy has been substantiated, an appropriate remedy shall be provided to the person who has been subjected to inappropriate behaviour. Corrective action shall be taken against the person(s) who has breached this policy. This may include education or training, denying access to Diocesan facilities and activities, and/or in the case of Diocesan employees, discipline up to and including termination of employment.

Retaliation

It is considered to be a breach of this policy to take retaliatory action against a person who raises a concern or files a complaint under this policy.

Further Information

Any questions regarding this policy can be referred to the Diocesan Safe Environment Coordinator at the Catholic Pastoral Centre (250-448-2725).
