

November & December S.T.A.R.S

Kindergarten - Finn, Sadie and Logan for always participating in classroom activities.

Room 2a - Nevaha for taking responsibility for making a mistake and fixing it. Jody for being a great listener. Tyler for his enthusiasm for our learning activities and for working hard. Lexi for improvement in cooperation and listening.

Room 5 - Wyatt is a very kind young man, who goes above and beyond to help someone in need. Evan works really hard on everything he does and is a model to his classmates. Raeya is always so positive and cheerful, and is kind to everyone she encounters.

Room 3 - Ethan and Evan for always being willing to help and consistently showing kindness towards classmates and adults.

Room 10 - Dylan for being a good friend and including others in play at recess. Alyssa for choosing to do the right thing even when no one else is watching. Lily for participation in class activities and discussions and for her positive attitude. Lily is a real role model for her classmates! Lochlann for always being willing to help out around the classroom and for his interest and participation in class.

Room 8 - Emma and Josh for taking increased responsibility for their learning. They are getting started on their work, asking questions when needed and putting their best effort in. Great job! Melissa and Kaed for putting their best effort into their writing and crafting interesting, detailed stories and informational texts.

Room 15 - Sierra eagerly participates in class discussions and works hard on all her assignments. She has also shown leadership in class activities. Mattea works exceptionally hard in all subjects, especially writing and art. She has also been working with a grade one student in reading recovery. She is amazingly creative and full of positive energy. Alix is an incredibly hard worker and a calming influence in the class. Alix always has a smile on her face and puts her best foot forward in everything she does. Kylie has shown an exceptional ability to work with students in younger grades. She is incredibly patient and kind with her reading buddy.

Room 13 - Caden is working hard at being a good community member by bringing in the left behind balls from the playground at recess. He doesn't really care if it is a basketball or a football, he just brings it back into the school. In the classroom, Caden is working on taking his time with his writing to develop more interesting stories. Way to go, Caden. Cash is practicing with being more patient with himself when learning and has tried again and again when he is frustrated with a new concept, like integers. He is slowing down and doing more quality work each day. Throughout this school year, Cash has worked hard to use his leadership skills for a positive effect in room 13. Congratulations Cash!

Room 14 - Talia has shown great leadership within our classroom. She has been a fantastic role model for our class. She continues to work very hard in class and as a result she was very successful academically. Congratulations on a great first term.
